Welcome to issue #11, we hope you enjoy reading these regular updates - keeping the AngelmanUK community connected.

With the end of 2023 fast approaching we'd like to say a huge thank you to our families, friends, collaborators and trustees. Each of you play such an important role in raising awareness of Angelman Syndrome as well as vital funds for AngelmanUK and we simply could not do it without you all. We're looking forward to a very exciting 2024 and hope that you'll continue to support us, so that we can support all of you.

We can't finish this year without remembering those we've lost in 2023, our thoughts are with families currently going through difficult times. We wish everyone a peaceful end to the year.

If you require information or support please email support@angelmanuk.org or click on our logo which takes you to our website.

grants

A huge thank you to Spread Your Wings for helping to fund our latest round of community grants.

We had a huge amount of interest and we are currently working through them all to contact those who have been successful. If you can share photos and information about how the item will benefit the person you care for with Angelman Syndrome, please email marketing@angelmanuk.org

The next round of community grants will open in April 2024.

lanyards

We are pleased to be able to offer the opportunity to purchase a Hidden Disabilities Sunflower lanyard created specifically for people with Angelman Syndrome. The cards include space on the back for personal information and an emergency contact.

join us

Are you the person AngelmanUK is looking for?

AngelmanUK is evolving and we are looking for new people to join our team of trustees and regional representatives. This will be a voluntary role but reasonable expenses will be covered. Trustees will be expected to attend 4 'in person' trustee meetings during the year and other on line meetings where necessary. Community ambassadors will be invited to attend meetings but are under no obligation to attend in person.

Do you have a specialist or professional interest in:

- Communication
- Health & welfare
- Science & research
- Governance
- Fundraising
- Marketing & social media
- Community engagement
- Event planning

Do you live in

- Scotland
- Northern Ireland
- another region under represented by AngelmanUK

Would you like to know more about what is involved?

Please contact info@angelmanuk.org with your preferred role in the subject line and we'll get back to you as soon as we can.

cards

There's still time to send an e-card this Christmas if you haven't already! Choose one of the designs created by our families and spread some festive cheer. Click the button below to send yours.

thank you

Without your fundraising and your donations there would be no AngelmanUK to offer support to your family. Whether big or small, every penny really does make a difference. Don't forget to keep up to date with us on social media to see who has raised money for us recently. If you have images to share with us, please email them to fundraising@angelmanuk.org

You might have seen us talk on social media about Team AngelmanUK, our group to bring together those who take part in sport fundraisers and celebrate their achievements. If you'd like to be part of Team AngelmanUK or are interested in being an ambassador for us, please email team@angelmanuk.org
